ADI ROSENKRANTZ

HR with a Minor in BTM

Adi is a 5th year student with a double specialization in OBHR and BTM. Her two most meaningful UBC experiences have been as a COMM 101 TA (and recently Head TA), and as president of UBC PATHS (which raises funds and awareness for Parkinson's and Alzheimer's research). She has completed several HR internships in recruitment, labour relations, and employer branding and will be returning to Labatt Breweries of Canada as part of their Global Management Trainee program after graduation. The most memorable and influential part of her undergrad was going on exchange to Science Po, which allowed her to live in Paris and travel to 10 countries over a 5 month period.

ASHLEY CHANA

Accounting with a Minor in Law and Society

Ashley is a 4th year student specializing in Accounting with a minor in Law and Society. She has completed two internships, one as a Business Intelligence Analyst at WELL Health (a health tech start-up) and the other as an Audit Intern at KPMG. She went through CPA Recruit in her 2nd year and attended KPMG's national student leadership conference, Executive Look, in Toronto that summer. During her time at Sauder, she has also been a TA for COMM 294 and COMM 186E, a Project Consultant with Enactus UBC, and involved with student organizations such as YWiB UBC and UBC Moot Court. After graduating this semester, she will be attending law school in the fall to combine her interest in business and law and eventually pursue a career in corporate law. Her interests include bullet journaling, reading, and yoga. Fun fact: she is planning on reading all of Jane Austen's novels this year!
